Chip,
I always like having these mtgs, if for no other reason to have the forum to ask questions & discuss timely topics..., but I'm slammed 1/11/12 & could use the extra time made by cancelling the PH Mgr mtg.
Jim

Per Jim McKenna, the LWG doesn't have any agenda items for the Wednesday Project Managers meeting. They are busy with reviews/revisions and on schedule for delivery of both the interim deliverable (next Monday) and the draft FS report. If we have no major items, they will likely propose cancelling the meeting. We should let everyone know by today either way for those who will be travelling. I told Jim we would be requesting the word version of the RI report today & he doesn't see that as a problem.
